A CENTURY-OLD TRADITION OF FINE CRAFTSMANSHIP

Solid Walnut and Cherry Furniture — Hickory Smoked Hams — Bacons and Sausage — Fine Woolen Goods — Bakery Products — Food Freezers — Refrigerators and Air Conditioners — Rhubarb and Grape Wines — Handicraft and Gift Items. See these fine products at our shops, stores and display rooms throughout the Villages as listed on this guide map.

The Amana Colonies are a pleasant place to visit the year around. A big attraction during July and early August is the Amana Lily Lake when the famed Lotus lily is in full bloom. Many visitors come to join in the gay festivities of the annual "Oktoberfest."

The Amana Colonies restaurants in the Amanas and the Amana Holiday Inn are widely known for excellent Amana food, served family style. Good food in the Amanas makes good friends — who return again and again.

THE HERITAGE OF THE AMANA COLONIES . . . AN AMERICAN TRADITION

In 1854 a group of God-fearing people of West German, Swiss and Alsatian ancestry left New York state (where they first settled in this country) and founded the seven villages in the fertile fields of Iowa. They established their own Woolen Mills, Furniture factory, Wagon shop, Meat smoking plants and other industries which provide the villages with the essential necessities of life.

Each member contributed some particular skill handed down from father to son, in true Old World tradition.

The excellence of the Amana products soon attracted the attention of the outside world and the Colonies enjoyed a national reputation for superb workmanship. Here today are blended the new ways with the Old — 20th century efficiency and time honored, fine craftsmanship.

Hand crafted articles such as woolens, furniture, smoked meat specialties, bakery goods, etc. are now sent throughout the United States. Major appliances, such as food freezers, refrigerators and air conditioners manufactured here are available everywhere.

During your visit to the Amanas see the century old Amana "Heim" and Heritage House museum that have been preserved to relive the past. Also visit the Old Colony Kitchen, Cooper's Shop and Hearth Oven museum. A touch of yesterday in an Old World atmosphere.

There are many scenic spots and places of interest in the Amana Colonies.
Stop for awhile in this peaceful setting of another time.
